First Semester Exam in English (Technical English)

Master I

- ESE - Niveau Inter -

1- English is the language of globalization, and its effect on the world is growing with every passing day, but sometimes teachers of English at the university, make a mistake by using GE while teaching intermediate students, while ESP is more suitable for them.

I- What is meant by GE? provide a brief explanation.

II- State 4 characteristics of both GE and ESP to show the difference between them both.

2- Circuit symbols are used in circuit diagrams which show how a circuit is connected together. To draw and build a circuit, students must be aware of "circuit symbols".

I- Match: the component with the correct function and circuit symbol.

Cell	A safety device which will 'blow' (melt) if the current flowing through it exceeds a specified value.
Fuse	A transducer converting electrical energy to mechanical energy by pulling on something magnetically.
Heater	Supplies electrical energy.
Coil	A transducer which converts electrical energy to heat.

3- In your adult life you will have to make oral presentations on a regular basis, or at least from time to time. The process of an oral presentation consists of: planning, preparing and delivering.

I- Chose one correct answer :

Planning deals with :

- determining the purpose.
- preparing an outline.
- moving smoothly

Preparing deals with :

- analyzing the audience
- having one main idea and expanding it by collecting data.
- speaking loudly

Delivering deals with :

- maintaining a positive body language
- preparing an outline
- determining the purpose

While dealing with your audience, you should :

- dismiss them
- be arrogant
- be empathic

4- The language of questions is the necessary guideline to the answer, knowing words that indicate questions provides a better understanding of the task as a whole; and thus a better performance.

I- Mention 2 words that indicate: sequence questions, classification questions; with a simple definition.

5- A Curriculum Vitae is the first image you present to an employer, neatness and straightforwardness should be taken into account.

I- What does a CV include in general?

II- Chose one correct answer :

Under the category of "personal information", you should include:

- work history
- name
- date of birth

Under the category of "contact information", you should include:

- telephone number
- spouse's name
- publications

Under the category of "employment history", you should include:

- computer skills
- research and training
- nationality

III- What does "professional membership" mean ? (in a CV)

" Be not afraid of greatness. Some are born great, some achieve greatness, and some have greatness thrust upon them. " William Shakespeare.
